

Help Support Jotwell

Author : Michael Froomkin

Date : November 13, 2015

If you like us (lots) please consider making a donation to support JOTWELL.

We don't charge for JOTWELL and we don't run any ads, but producing this journal is not costless. Although all of the authors and faculty editors donate their time, we do need to pay for our server, for various types of technical and design support, and for our student editors. This adds up.

JOTWELL Needs Your Support

If every JOTWELL reader donated just $7 a year, we'd cover all of our costs. Of course, not everyone is a generous as you are, so please won't you consider making a small gift, whether one-time or recurring, to help keep JOTWELL free \(and ad-free\).
