

Summer Publishing Schedule -- and New Sections Coming Soon

Author : Jotwell

Date : June 4, 2012

Jotwell moves to its summer publishing schedule this week. Reviews will post on Mondays and Thursdays during June, July, and August (with a short annual summer break at the end of August).

We'll return to a more frequent publication schedule when the new academic year begins in September.

In the next few months we'll also be adding three new sections: Family Law, Health Law, and Torts, with still more to follow in the future.
